

2021 Silent Auction Donation Form

Eastern Catawba Cooperative Christian Ministry, Inc. (ECCCM) is hosting our annual Share the Harvest Banquet on September 11th, 6 pm, at Warehouse 18 in Hickory, featuring entertainment by The Extraordinaires. The purpose of the event is to raise funds so that ECCCM can continue serving those in need.

ECCCM is a 501(c)(3) crisis agency that provides assistance in three main areas:

- Hunger relief: ECCCM offers four “Hunger Prevention Programs.” Differing in food amount and frequency of pickups, these programs ensure the needs of all clients are being met. ECCCM is dedicated to distributing nutritious food and eliminating obesity and other health related issues in eastern Catawba County. In 2020, 1.6 million pounds of food was distributed through the Charlie Bunn Food Pantry.
- Emergency crisis assistance: ECCCM provides assistance with mortgage/rent payments, utility bills, life-necessary pharmaceuticals, and basic car repairs.
- Financial coaching: ECCCM’s Crisis Assistance Coaching Program (CACP) is a mandatory four-hour class taken by ECCCM clients. Through lessons like budgeting, meal scheduling, and community resources, clients learn how to become self-sufficient.

The primary goal of ECCCM’s services is to keep families in their homes with functional utilities and ample food, preventing them from sliding into the almost inescapable pit of homelessness.

In 2020, ECCCM provided 30,469 total services in our three main focus areas, allowing us to reach 7,343 individuals in Catawba County. Events like the Share the Harvest Banquet help ECCCM meet the ongoing need for assistance in Catawba County.

Please join us this fall by donating a silent auction item to the 2021 Share the Harvest Banquet. Donating to this event will not only help those in need in eastern Catawba County, but is also a great promotional opportunity for your company. Silent Auction items are due by August 25, 2021. If you have any questions please contact Jo Ann Sherrill at (828) 465-1702 or at j.sherrill@ecccm.org.
